

24th June, 2016 | Taj Lands End, Mumbai

Every day, we go to work hoping to do two things: share great coffee with our friends and help make the world a little better. For a long time, certifications for responsible food production and awards for superior taste have remained distinct—one honors social and environmental responsibility, while the other celebrates flavor. The India Coffee Leadership Awards recognize that truly good coffee - the kind that brings people together and builds strong, healthy communities—contains all of these ingredients. We take a comprehensive view, honoring people who make the taste delicious, the experience respectful of the environment, and connected to communities and cultural traditions.

Recognizing the best, the brightest, the exceptional, and those who exhibit extraordinary commitment and passion for specialty coffee. Their passion continues to guide them on their journey, all for that next cup of perfection, that's so elusive and just out of reach...
